

Supporting the Growth of the Whole Credit Union

With LaserPro[®], you get a lending solution that grows with you.

Strengthen Community Ties through Member Business Lending

Credit unions are an integral part of the communities they serve. Coupled with an increased demand for business lending services, this has created an opportunity for credit unions in member business lending.

From Trusted Advisor to Trusted Lender

Take advantage of the latest lending opportunities while retaining your personal touch. LaserPro[®] simplifies the lending process so your loan officers have time to focus on other member needs.

Automate Your Business Lending

Whether involved in personal or business lending with your members, loan transactions are complex. LaserPro and our expert support team care about making business lending easy. Take advantage of our in-depth industry knowledge by using the only system that includes automated document selection logic and business loan calculations. You enter the member, collateral and loan details; LaserPro selects the documents and performs calculations necessary to complete the loan package.

A Solution You Can Trust

CUNA Strategic Services is continuously trying to address the growing demand for solutions that expand and improve the services delivered by credit unions to their members. Harland Financial Solutions' LaserPro product is an integral part of meeting this demand. Selected by CUNA as a preferred product for compliant business lending, LaserPro is a solution you can trust.
